Your claim was issued on 10 October 2008

The court has sent it to the defendant and it will be deemed served on 13 October 2008.

The defendant has 14 days from service to file a defence. If a defence is filed, the court will send you a copy.

If the defendant does not file a defence, you may ask the court to make a possession order and (if applied for) an order of costs. Complete the tear-off portion of this form and return it to the court office.

On receiving either the defence or your request for an order, the court staff will refer the claim to a judge to decide whether or not to make an order without a hearing.

You have three months from the date by which the defendant should file a defence to file your request for an order. If by then the court has not received either a defence or your request, the claim will be stayed.

To the court

The defendant has not filed a defence to my claim and the time for doing so has expired.

I ask the court to order the defendant to give me possession of the premises [and to pay my costs].

~~[The defendant has given me possession of the premises. I ask the court to order the defendant to pay my costs.]~~
